REQUEST FOR POLICE & CRIME COMMISSIONER DECISION - (N° 021-2017)

TITLE: Charges for Policing Services 2017/18

Executive Summary:

The majority of policing services are funded from general and local taxation for the benefit of the public at large. However, there are certain circumstances when it is appropriate for the police service to make charges to individuals or organisations to recover policing costs.

The Commissioner's Financial Regulations require that a charging policy for goods and services is put in place, which accords with National Police Chiefs' Council Guidance (NPCC) and that this is reviewed at least annually.

This report outlines proposed charges for 2017/18. As the Commissioner previously approved, charges will be reviewed in line with NPCC guidance, irrespective of when this issued. This may require a further revision to charges part way through the financial year, which will subsequently be presented to the Commissioner for approval.

Recommendation:

The Commissioner is recommended to :-

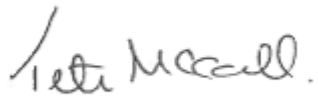

- Agree the revised scale of charges as outlined in the appendices to this report.
- Agree the proposal to revise fees and charges in line with revised NPCC guidance, at the point it is issued, a revised schedule of charges will subsequently be presented to the Commissioner for approval.

Police & Crime Commissioner

I confirm that I have considered whether or not I have any personal or prejudicial in this matter and take the proposed decision in compliance with the Code of Conduct for Cumbria Police & Crime Commissioner. Any such interests are recorded below.

I hereby approve/~~do not approve~~ the recommendation(s) above

Police & Crime Commissioner / ~~Chief Executive~~ (delete as appropriate)

Executive Summary:

The majority of policing services are funded from general and local taxation for the benefit of the public at large. However, there are certain circumstances when it is appropriate for the police service to make charges to individuals or organisations to recover policing costs.

The Commissioner's Financial Regulations require that a charging policy for goods and services is put in place, which accords with national Police Chiefs' Council guidance (NPCC) and that this is reviewed at least annually.

This report outlines proposed charges for 2017/18. As the Commissioner previously approved charges will be reviewed in line with NPCC guidance, irrespective of when this issued. This may require a further revision to charges part way through the financial year, which will subsequently be presented to the Commissioner for approval.

Recommendation:

The Commissioner is recommended to :

- Agree the revised scale of charges as outlined in the appendices to this report.
- Agree the proposal to revise fees and charges in line with revised NPCC guidance, at the point it is issued, a revised schedule of charges will subsequently be presented to the Commissioner for approval.

MAIN SECTION

1. Introduction and Background

1.1 The majority of policing services are funded from general and local taxation for the benefit of the public at large. However, there are certain circumstances when it is appropriate for the police service to make charges to individuals or organisations to recover policing costs.

1.2 Cumbria Constabulary has adopted the NPCC guidance in relation to charging and continues to make charges on this basis. In a small number of instances local discretion is applied to specific charges to better reflect actual costs incurred in meeting demands. In accordance with the recommendation contained within the guidance that the Police and Crime Commissioner should take ownership of charging policy, as part of his overarching responsibility for the Police Fund, into which all receipts must be paid, this report outlines an updated schedule of charges for 2017/18 for approval by the Commissioner. A schedule of current charges will also be published on the Police and Crime Commissioner and Constabulary websites.

1.2.1 The ability to charge for police services is generally determined by statutory provisions. There are three main categories of charging which are examined in detail below.

2. Issues for Consideration

2.1 Special Policing Services

2.1.1 The provision of special police services is made at the request of any person under section 25 of the Police Act 1996, which makes such services subject to the payment of charges as determined by the relevant Police and Crime Commissioner and Constabulary. Special Police Services generally relate to policing an event e.g. a pop concert or series of events e.g. football matches. Special police services are provided over and above the core policing requirement to ensure public safety and to manage crime and disorder issues. Special policing services can only be provided at the request of an event organiser and it will be for the Chief Constable to determine the level of policing that is required based on a risk assessment, which should then form the basis of a contractual arrangement between the force and the event organiser. It will often be the case that licensing authorities will require assurance that adequate policing will be in place before granting a license for an event to take place.

2.1.2 The basis of charging depends on the nature of the event being policed. ACPO strongly advocate that policing of commercial events is on a full economic cost basis which includes the recovery of overheads. Cumbria Constabulary's calculation of full economic cost recovery for special policing services in 2017/18 based on current rates of pay using the NPCC methodology is shown in Appendix 1.

2.1.3 Charging guidance does permit discretion to abate some or all of special policing charges where an event is of a non-commercial nature i.e. charitable or community events, particularly where the effective policing of an event is seen as beneficial in building the trust and confidence of the community. Under the 2017/18 financial regulations this is subject to the approval of the Commissioner or Chief Constable.

2.2 Provision of Goods and Services to Third Parties

2.2.1 Under S18 of the Police Act 1996, as amended by the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011, Police and Crime Commissioners are granted the powers of the Local Authorities (Goods and Services) Act 1970 to supply goods or services to other bodies or persons. In practice the range of goods and services which can be provided under this power are limited in that they have to be supported by Police and Crime Commissioners' statutory powers. This means that such a service must spin off normal policing activity or be an activity, which is incidental to the provision of the police service.

2.2.2 There are services, which are common to all police forces and unique to the police service, for which the NPCC guidance sets out standard rates of charge across the service as outlined in the table in Appendix 2. These charges have been increased in line with NPCC guidance.

Within this category there are also some charges which are fixed statutorily.

2.2.3 In a small number of instances charges vary from those advocated by NPCC to better reflect local costs in providing services.

2.2.4 In certain circumstances, services which support the police service may be provided in a competitive market environment - for example training in particular skills. The general principle in these situations is that charges should at least recover the direct costs of supplying the service, but could also be levied up to full economic cost dependent on market conditions.

2.3 Mutual Aid

2.3.1 Mutual Aid is the provision of policing assistance to another police force. This usually occurs in response to or in anticipation of a major event or incident or investigation.

2.3.2 Mutual aid arrangements cover a wide spectrum of incidents ranging from spontaneous deployments of relatively short duration in response to a major event to pre-planned or prolonged assistance for example in investigating a major crime. NPCC guidance distinguishes between types of mutual aid through a grading system which reflects the characteristics of the event, that will then form the criteria for payment to the individuals involved and therefore the basis for cost recovery. In addition, the guidance provides for additional supplementary charges where specialised resources are provided. A national schedule of charge out rates for police officers to be used by all forces providing mutual aid is used.

2.3.3 In July 2016, the NPCC approved updates to the National Policing Guidelines on Charging for Police Services: Mutual Aid Cost Recovery with an implementation date of 1 September 2016. The changes resulted in the mutual aid categories being reduced to three grades, merging Serious/Major Incident and Major Planned Deployment/Major Planned Event into Planned Deployment/ Event. The new categories are:

- Emergency/Spontaneous deployment
- Planned Deployment/Event
- Specialist Staff Deployments

In addition, the changes resulted in mutual aid Grade 2 and Grade 3 being merged into Grade 2 and a new Grade 0 being introduced for bank holiday deployments. Grade 0 overrides any other grade. The three grades are:

- Grade 0 Mutual Aid – Bank Holiday
- Grade 1 Mutual Aid – 15 days’ notice or less
- Grade 2 Mutual Aid – 16 days’ notice or more.

The latest NPCC mutual aid charges are included in Appendix 3 to this report.

2.3.4 NPCC advocate that the provision of PCSOs and Police Staff support under mutual aid arrangements is legitimate, although this is likely to be less common. Deployment of police staff should be recompensed on the basis of employable cost plus any overtime worked. All other costs relating to the deployment of mutual aid staff should be charged to the host on an actual cost basis. In addition, NPCC guidance states that an administrative charge of 5% of the total of actual costs incurred also be levied to cover on costs such as uniform, equipment, insurance and the costs of organising support, often at short notice.

3. Financial Comments

3.1 Schedules of revised charges are set out in the appendix to this report.

4. Legal Comments

4. 1 The legal basis on which charges for Policing Services are made are set out in the report.
